

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

DELEGATES TO THE ELEVENTH NATIONAL 4-H CLUB CAMP

Washington, D. C., June 17 - 23, 1937

MINNESOTA

Delegate	County
Dorothy Boxrud . . . . .	Lac qui Parle
Kenneth Ostlund. . . . .	Wadena
Elna Radtke. . . . .	Brown
Wilson Radway. . . . .	Roseau

Miss Boxrud lives on a 344-acre farm. She has been interested in dairy calf, and clothing since enrolling in the 4-H club.

She has entered the clothing judging contests at the State fair. In 1934 and 1935 her demonstration team put on a demonstration in Milk and Milk Drinks, and in 1936 a demonstration in Bread. She was county and State champion in the agricultural group in 1935, and second in the county in 1936. She has been county style queen in the style revue; has won two trips to the State and one to the 4-H Club Week; and has held the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, treasurer, and president.

* * * *

Mr. Ostlund selected poultry, hogs, calf, garden, lambs, and junior leadership as his projects and has been in club work 9 years.

He has conducted dairy judging at the county and State fairs. His demonstration team gave a dairy demonstration on cream grading, winning first place. Kenneth kept a health record for 5 years.

In the showmanship contest he has won first in beef. He has been awarded trips to St. Paul Short Course, farm boys' camp, Junior Livestock Show, State fair, and the butter makers' convention at La Crosse, Wis.

He has held the offices of treasurer and president.

* * * *

Miss Radtke has carried the following projects during her 5 years' club experience: Poultry, clothing, baking, canning, colt, room improvement, and leadership. In 1934 she judged baking at the State fair, was a member of the demonstration team which placed second at the County Achievement Day in 1933. She has been an entrant in the county health contest for the past 3 years. In the showmanship contest she has won first with her colt. She exhibited canning at the State fair in 1935 and 1936. Among her awards were the following trips: 4-H Week, 1933; leaders' camp, 1934; State fair,

2 years; National Club Congress, 1935. She has held all the offices in her club.

* * * *

Mr. Radway has specialized in sheep and potatoes during his 9 years' membership in the 4-H club.

He has judged crops and livestock at the State fair and has been a member of a livestock demonstration team which won the championship.

In showmanship he won the county championship in both the potato and the meat-animal contest.

Wilson has won trips to the Junior Short Course at Crookston. He has been assistant leader, local leader, vice president, and president for the last three years.

Extension Service,
U. S. Department of Agriculture.